- By signing this form, I declare that I participate in all activities conducted by Matrix Diving Safaris on my own risk.
- I declare that I can swim.
- I declare that I will look after any rental or borrowed equipment. In case of loss or damage I will cover the costs to repair or replace the item at fair market value including shipping and taxes.
- I understand and accept that participating in any diving activities is not allowed under the influence of drugs, alcohol and if I feel unwell. Diving while taking medications is only allowed if a fit for diving certificate, signed by a diving physician, can be presented.
- I agree to cover all costs of potential dive related accidents and accidents that may happen on the diving vessel including transport, hospitalization, medical treatment and evacuation.
- In the event that I become incapable of making sound decisions, I fully authorize the Matrix Diving Safaris staff to take necessary action for my safety and declare that I will cover all related expenses.
- I confirm that the Matrix Diving Safaris staff has informed me of safety aspects of recreational scuba diving and I am prepared to follow these rules.
- I accept that I must obey the instructions given by Matrix Diving Safaris staff on the diving vessel and during any activities offered.
- I confirm that the Matrix Diving Safaris staff has checked my logbook and certifications.
- Matrix Diving Safaris and/or its staff can only be held liable when gross negligence is proven.

General rules for liveboards:

- The maximum diving depth is 40 meters (depending on qualification and experience).
- Decompression dives are prohibited.
- Solo diving is prohibited.
- A safety stop of 3 minutes at 5 meters is mandatory at the end of every dive.
- Avoid dehydration – drink a lot of water.
- Lost buddy procedure – search for not more than one minute, then ascent and reunite or report on surface.
- We recommend a surface interval of at least 24 hours between the last dive and a flight.
